Part 2
Code of Governing Rules

Article I
Organization

Section 1.

There shall be three classes of members as follows:

1. Active 2. Associate 3. League Benefit Member
 1. An Active Member shall be a person in charge of a post office (Postmaster or Officer In Charge).
 2. An Associate Member shall be an individual who pays dues and exercises an interest in the League. Associate members include the following:
 - a. Retired Postmasters.
 - b. Former Postmasters or Officers In Charge.
 - c. Postmaster Replacements.
 - d. EAS employees and former EAS employees.
 3. A League Benefit Member shall be a person other than an Active or Associate Member to whom benefits of League membership shall be extended. League Benefit Members include the following:
 - a. U.S. Postal Service employees.
 - b. Federal government employees.
 - c. Retired annuitants.

The Active and Associate Members of the League shall be grouped by Branches, which shall be designated by name and organized geographically according to the states and outlying areas of the United States.

Section 2.

A Branch may be established in any state or outlying area, which does not have a Branch when the active membership represents ten percent of the post offices. A Branch shall be established by a qualifying convention of which due notice shall have been given to all Active Members in such state or outlying area. A National Executive Board Member shall be in attendance at such convention.

Section 3.

The Executive Board shall issue charters to Branches when established. The Executive Board may revoke the charter if a Branch convention is not held annually.

Section 4.

Each Branch shall adopt a Code of Governing Rules, which shall not conflict with the Articles of Incorporation, or Code of Governing Rules of the National League of Postmasters of the United States. Any amendments to the Code of Governing Rules of the League, which pertain to Branches, shall automatically become a part of the Code of Governing Rules of each Branch. The Code of Governing Rules of each Branch shall provide for the holding of an annual meeting and for the election of a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, the last two offices may be combined, and any other officers as may be deemed advisable, all of whom shall be Active Members. The State Executive Board shall provide sufficient bonding to cover indemnity of Branch members authorized to receive and disburse funds.

Article II
Convention*Section 1.

The governing body of the League shall be its annual National Convention. This convention shall be for the purpose of establishing League policy, for receiving and reviewing reports, for electing officers and for the consideration of other business.

Section 2.

The National Convention shall convene annually. The exact date and site of the convention shall be determined by the Executive Board and published in an official publication of the League. The official call of the convention shall be issued by the Executive Board to the President of each Branch.

Section 3.

A special National Convention may be called by the vote of a quorum of the Executive Board or upon the request of any fifteen Branches. Such special National Convention shall be held not more than sixty (60) days after the date of the request. The notice of each National Convention shall be printed in an official publication of the League. The President of the League shall notify each Branch President and Secretary by certified letter of the place, date and time of such special National Convention at least thirty (30) days prior to any such convention. Only business stated in the call of the special convention shall be transacted.

Section 4.

The delegates of all National Conventions shall be:

- (a) The elected National Officers the League who shall be members at large.
- (b) The National Past Presidents who are Active Members.
- (c) The President of each Branch or such President's proxy from the President's own Branch.
- (d) One additional delegate for each fifty active and associate members, or fraction thereof, who are in good standing in such Branch as of the preceding June 30.
- (e) The Retired League Postmasters Representative who shall be a member at Large
- (f) One delegate at large from each organized retiree Branch. Such delegate shall be a retiree from that Branch.

Section 5.

- (a) The election of officers shall be by roll call vote with the sequence of Branches voting to be determined by lottery. When the election of a candidate is uncontested, there shall be no roll call of Branches. There shall be no passing by Branches and no unit rule. Other convention business requiring a roll call vote shall be conducted in like manner.
- (b) In the absence of any delegates or alternates, the President or Chairman of the delegation shall certify other Active Members of that Branch as delegates with the Credentials Committee. Delegates must be seated in order to cast a vote.

Section 6.

A majority of the certified delegates as of the first day shall constitute a quorum.

Section 7.

Any expenditure voted by the annual National Convention shall be appropriated in the next annual budget, provided funds are available.

Article III Officers

Section 1.

The National Officers of the League shall be a President, five Vice Presidents, and a Secretary/Treasurer who shall be Active Members. Such officers shall be elected at a National Convention for a term of two years, or until a successor is elected. The National President and three National Vice Presidents shall be elected on even-numbered years. Two National Vice Presidents, and the National Secretary/Treasurer shall be elected on odd-numbered years. A National Officer shall serve no more than two successive two-year elected terms to any one national office. Appointment to an unexpired term shall not be considered a part of the two-year term. Election to a one-year term constitutes a full term. Candidates for National Office shall be placed in nomination from the floor of the National Convention without regard to geography of residence. Any officer with an unexpired term must resign from that position upon acceptance of a nomination for another office. The vacancy thus created shall be filled by the normal election procedures at the convention session.

Section 2.

Following the election of the Vice Presidents, the annual National Convention shall elect one of the five to be Executive Vice President.

Section 3.

National Officers elected by the convention shall take office immediately upon the close of the annual National Convention at which they were elected.

Section 4.

The Retired League Postmaster Representative shall take office immediately upon the close of the annual National Convention for a term of one year.

Section 5.

In case of vacancy in the office of President, the Executive Vice President shall succeed to the position until the next annual National Convention, at which time an election shall be held to fill the position.

Section 6.

In case of vacancy in the office of the Executive Vice President, the four remaining Vice Presidents shall caucus to select by ballot, one of them to succeed to the unexpired term. In the event of a tie, the President shall cast the deciding vote.

Section 7.

In case of vacancy in the office of a Vice President, the President, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall name an Active Member to fill the position until the next annual National Convention at which time an election shall be held to fill the position.

Section 8.

In case of vacancy in the office of Secretary/Treasurer, the President, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall name an Active Member to fill the position until the next annual National Convention at which time an election shall be held to fill the position.

Section 9.

In case of vacancy in the office of Immediate Past President, the office shall remain unfilled until the next Past President is available.

Section 10.

In the case of vacancy in the Retired League Representative position, the Retired League Postmasters, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall fill the position until the next required election.

Section 11.

Vacancies in the Executive Board shall be filled within ninety (90) days from effective date of vacancy.

Section 12.

The President shall be responsible for the efficient management of the League. The President shall generally preside at all annual National Conventions and in all plenary sessions whenever a vote is taken. The President shall be chairman and shall execute the will of the majority of the Executive Board. The President shall appoint the members of standing and special committees with the approval of the Executive Board. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. The President shall appoint a member of the Executive Board to serve as Advisor to each Standing Committee. The President shall see that the National Office is staffed with competent personnel for efficient and economical operation. The President shall report monthly to the National Officers, setting forth the general financial condition of the League and communicate items of advisement for information.

Section 13.

The Executive Vice President shall work closely with the President and shall be considered such President's Executive Assistant. The Executive Vice President shall preside at all meetings in the absence of the President. Transactions of the Executive Board shall be valid in their entirety when the Executive Vice President is acting in the duly constituted position of President pro tem.

Section 14.

The Vice Presidents and the Immediate Past President shall perform other duties as assigned by the convention or by the President.

Section 15.

The Secretary/Treasurer shall be responsible for all records of the League and shall maintain permanent records of all meetings. The Secretary/Treasurer shall oversee all financial reporting. Such officer shall review the receipt, deposit and disbursement of such funds within budgeted authorization or pursuant to action by the annual National Convention. The Secretary/Treasurer shall make recommendations to the Executive board and the Executive Board shall establish procedures for the deposit and disbursement of funds by persons in the National Office.

Article IV
Executive Board*Section 1.

The following shall constitute the Executive Board: National President, five Vice Presidents, Secretary/Treasurer, the Retired League Postmasters President and the Immediate Past President who shall serve for one year. (08/2009)

Section 2.

The Executive Board shall have full power and authority over the affairs of the League within policies established by the annual National Convention and when the convention is not in session. Each member shall have a vote.

Section 3.

A quorum of the Executive Board shall be 70% of the filled positions.

Section 4.

The Executive Board shall convene in the convention city immediately before and upon adjournment of the convention and at least twice thereafter upon the call of the President. The President may call a special meeting of the Executive Board and shall call a special meeting upon the written request of five members of the Board.

Section 5.

The Executive Board shall adopt an annual budget. It shall arrange for and pay premium on bonds sufficient to cover indemnity of National Officers authorized to receive and disburse funds. It shall control all fringe benefits offered to members. It shall provide for internal control and audit. It shall further provide for an annual audit of all financial records by a Certified Public Accountant. The full report shall be provided to LEAGUE members upon request. The summary financial report of such audit shall be published in an official publication of the LEAGUE following the audit.

Section 6.

The Executive Board shall provide for the issuance of a distinctive membership card.

Section 7.

The President, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall appoint the Editors of official publications of the League. The Executive Board shall certify which shall be official publications of the League.

Section 8.

The Executive Board shall have power by an affirmative vote of a quorum to remove any inactive, incompetent, or delinquent National Officer or standing committee member. A National Officer shall have been given due notice at least thirty (30) days prior to such action. Such Officer shall be given the opportunity to be heard in person or by such Officer's designated representative.

Section 9.

Each member of the Executive Board, during the National Convention, shall be given an opportunity to make a report.

Section 10.

The Executive Board may authorize the establishment of an Auxiliary to the League. This Auxiliary shall exist under its own Charter and Code of Governing Rules to further the purposes of the League. The National and Branch Auxiliaries shall file a Code of Governing Rules and amendments thereto with the National Office for review and record.

Section 11.

The Executive Board may direct the President to submit recommendations for the position of Executive Officer. The Executive Board may then appoint an Executive Officer and define the duties of the position. The Executive Officer shall serve at the pleasure of the Executive Board and under terms and conditions established by it.

Section 12.

The Executive Board shall provide a program to assist Postmasters in the protection of their rights of employment and tenure.

Article V Finances and Dues

Section 1.

The revenues of the League shall be derived from:

- (a) membership dues;
- (b) sale of supplies to Branches and members;
- (c) fringe benefit services; and
- (d) such other activities as may be in keeping with the policy and dignity of the League.

Section 2.

- (a) Dues of Active and Associate Members shall be assessed by action of the annual National Convention upon recommendation of the Executive Board. Membership dues shall run from July 1 to the succeeding June 30, but dues of a new member shall be prorated according to the month of entry.
- (b) Dues of League Benefit Members shall be assessed by action of the Executive Board. Membership dues shall run from January 1 to the succeeding December 31.

Section 3.

A schedule of dues shall be established for each of the three classes of members. Notice of a schedule of dues to come before the annual National Convention shall be published in an official publication of the League twice in advance of the convention.

Section 4.

Members may, by execution of the proper form, authorize the United States Postal Service to withhold dues from their salary for membership in the League and to pay such sums withheld to the National Office of the League.

Section 5.

All dues of the League shall be paid to the National Office monthly. The National Office will remit quarterly the Branch's proportionate share to the Branch Treasurer.

Section 6.

All net dues of Active Members shall be divided 40% to Branches and 60% to the National Office for a period not to exceed 5 years from the date of adoption.

Section 7.

The Retired League Postmasters organization shall receive 13% of the Retired League Postmasters net dues. The remainder shall be divided 31% to the Branches and 69% to the National Office.

Section 8.

The dues of Postmasters Replacements, excluding assessments, shall be divided 20% to the Branches and 80% to the National office. The dues of League Benefit Members shall be collected and retained by the National Office.

Section 9.

All net dues of other Associate Members shall be divided 40% to Branches and 60% to the National Office for a period not to exceed 5 years from the date of adoption.

Section 10.

All Active and Associate Members, with the exception of Retired League Postmasters, shall be assessed one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per month in addition to the regular dues and any other assessments. These funds shall be used solely for adverse action purposes.

Section 11.

All active and associate members with the exception of Retired League Postmasters shall pay one dollar ($1.00) per month in addition to the regular dues and any assessments. These funds shall be used solely for the purpose of providing the Security Legal Services Benefit Program to active and associate members.

Section 12.

All active members shall contribute one dollar ($1.00) to the Postal Employees Relief Fund annually through the Postal Data Center.

Article VI
Local Organizations

Section 1.

The Executive Board shall establish local organizations, which may be on area or district levels. Such organizations shall provide channels of communication between the League and the U.S. Postal Service to protect the interest and welfare of Postmasters.

Section 2.

In the event any Branch falls within more than one Postal Area, for the purpose of voting, the President or Chairman of the delegation and the Retiree Delegate shall be allowed to vote in each Area under their jurisdiction.

Section 2A.

The members of each Area shall meet at the Annual National Convention for the purpose of electing Area Coordinators and conducting other business. Postal Areas may join together to conduct this meeting. However, they shall conduct separate elections for each respective Area Coordinator. Such elections shall be conducted by the same delegate procedure as defined in Article II, Section 4 of the Code of Governing Rules. Area Coordinators shall be elected for two year terms and the areas shall be determined by the Executive Board. (08/2009)

Section 3.

In case of vacancy for the position of Area Coordinator, the Branch Presidents, in the Area where the vacancy occurs, shall name an active member to fill that position until the next annual National Convention, at which time a special election shall be held. A one-year term constitutes a full term.

Section 4.

Area Coordinators shall meet at the annual National Convention with the new Executive Board for the purpose of receiving instructions on their specific duties and Board obligations.

Section 5.

The Executive Board shall determine the financial assistance to the local organizations.

Article VII Committees

Section 1.

There shall be six Standing Committees composed of Members other than Associate Members. The President shall appoint the members of each committee with the approval of the Executive Board. The Legislative and Membership Committees shall have eleven members appointed annually. The Site Selection Committee shall have three members, with one member being appointed annually for a term of three years. The Resolutions Committee shall have seven members, who shall be appointed annually for terms of three years on a rotating basis. All other Committees shall have six members of which two shall be appointed annually for terms of three years. Annually the President shall appoint one member of each Committee as Chairman.

Section 2.

There shall be a Committee on Membership. This committee shall act continuously to bring into the League eligible persons as members.

Section 3.

There shall be a Committee on the Code of Governing Rules. This committee shall continuously review such Code of Governing Rules and recommend changes to the Executive Board, which shall be placed on the agenda of the National Convention for consideration.

Section 4.

There shall be a Committee on Effective Service. This committee shall continually review the performance of the United States Postal Service for the purpose of making constructive suggestions for the betterment of the service to the public. The committee shall also review performance of the League and make suggestions and/or recommendations to the Executive Board. It shall encourage suggestions from Postmasters so that the League may contribute helpful ideas from the experience of its members. The Executive Board shall have authority to adopt or deny any or all recommendations and must report its reasons to the Effective Service Committee.

Section 5.

There shall be a Committee on Resolutions. This committee shall receive formal expressions of opinion and recommendations for action from the National Executive Board or as approved by a Branch Executive Board or Branch Convention. It may combine, amend, substitute, edit, redraft, and originate resolutions for the purpose of presenting them to the National Convention in good form for efficient delegate action. It shall recommend such action as it judges to be in the best interest of the League and upon request shall communicate its actions and reasons for such action to the Branches on all resolutions received.

Section 6.

There shall be a Committee on Convention Site Selection. This committee shall explore sites, dates, costs, and facilities and submit its findings as information to the Executive Board.

Section 7.

There shall be a Committee on Legislation. This committee shall pursue such steps with the Congress, administrative agencies, government corporations, and the public to advance the proficiency of personnel in providing postal service promptly, reliably and efficiently to individuals and businesses in all areas of the nation and to enhance the overall working conditions and retirement benefits of all members.

Section 8.

All committees shall report to the Executive Board through their Advisor.

Article VIII Authority to Indemnify

Section 1.

Indemnification of directors. The Corporation, the League shall indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director against liability incurred in a proceeding if the director conducted himself or herself in good faith and believed in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the Corporation or in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction is not of itself determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct previously described. The Corporation, however, may not indemnify a director in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the Corporation or in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to such director, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which such director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

Indemnification hereto permitted in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Section 2.

Indemnification of officers, employees and agents. The Corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under this section to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director.

Article IX Parliamentary Authority

Section 1.

The rules contained in the current edition of “Roberts’ Rules of Order Newly Revised” shall govern the League in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with this Code of Governing Rules or any special rules of order the League may establish.

Article X Amendments

Section 1.

A proposal for amending this Code of Governing Rules must be approved by a Branch Executive Board or Branch convention and submitted through the President of the League for consideration by the Code of Governing Rules Committee not later than ninety (90) days prior to the annual National Convention, or upon recommendation of the National Executive Board, or the Code of Governing Rules Committee. After consideration by the Code of Governing Rules Committee, the proposed amendment shall be transmitted to the National Executive Board with the Committee’s recommendation. The proposed amendment shall be published in at least two issues of an official League publication prior to the annual National Convention and placed on the agenda of the convention for consideration.

Section 2.

The proposed amendment as transmitted by the Executive Board shall be read at two separate sessions of the convention. A vote of two-thirds of the registered delegates shall be required for adoption.

Section 3.

Unless otherwise specified, the effective date of an amendment so adopted shall be immediately upon the adjournment of the convention.

Annual Dues Structure
