

20 LEAGUE Members Recognized as Winners

In early March, the Postal Service recognized 43 Postmasters and one customer service manager for their outstanding customer outreach efforts with the 2007 Chief Marketing Officer's Growth Award, one of the Postal Service's highest honors. More than 28,000 Postmasters competed for the Growth Award in 2007—the highest participation in the history of the program. Six of the LEAGUE winners received their awards at the Forum on March 3. Listed below is the full list of those LEAGUE members honored with the Eagle.

Deputy PMG Pat Donahoe, at left in the pictures below, and CMO Anita Bizzotto, right, were assisted by LEAGUE President Charley Mapa. Bizzotto noted that “award winners reached out to their communities, bringing in new customers and helping them to get the most out of the mail.”
